Great football coaching and fantastic facilities!
TGM Travel Group helped every step of the way with my booking. The football aspect was first class. My son really enjoyed it. I would definitely recommend this for football mad boys and girls on holiday!

Daniel had a great time with Richard and enjoyed being trained whilst we were on holiday! Excellent way to keep boys and girls occupied doing sports and playing! Five stars. Thanks so much and we will be returning.

TGM Travel Group and The Game Elite Academy exceeded the expectations of my 2 football mad boys (7 & 9)! It's a win-win for parents and kids. There is a quality 3G pitch fenced off but visible whilst parents sunbathe. Richard the coach really looked after and included everyone so well. He got the balance spot on between activity, breaks and refreshments, shelter from the sun and off the pitch fun (trips into Playa Blanca to watch some evening football for the whole family to socialise). They made lots of friends for the whole holiday. I don't think any other holiday or kids club will compare to this. My boys only want to come back here!

My son Oscar really enjoyed his experience whilst away at THB Tropical. The coaches really put him at ease as he doesn't normally like being away from us.

George really enjoyed himself playing football in the sunshine. Thanks to TGM Travel Group and Richard for great tuition and the opportunity for George to make new friends. Would definitely recommend this to other families. The Game Mag Elite Academy was fantastic.

My son had the "best holiday ever" having trained with the guys at the academy. They were genuinely interested in improving his soccer skills and making sure he enjoyed every minute. Conor's already asking us to book Lanzarote again!

Madison and Maisy thoroughly enjoyed the football academy in Lanzarote with The Game Elite Academy. I have to say that on day one they were sceptical at attending not only being girls but being on the older age range (13 & 12). Well Richard was brilliant with them all! It was a mix of ages and they were all at different levels but my girls had so much fun. Madison is a footballer and Maisy isn't and so it was taking her out of her comfort zone but she loved attending. On the second day they were both up and ready in a flash and excited to attend as they were all week. A fabulous sporting experience for them both doing fun football in the sunshine! Thank you Richard and The Game Mag Elite Academy. Well done.
